

All the Good Things about Me

Looking at you and thinking you're beautiful
 Looking at you and thinking you're fine
 Looking at you and thinking you're beautiful
 I nearly missed how beautiful I am
 Looking at you and thinking how nice you are Looking at you and thinking you're kind
 Looking at you and thinking how nice you are
 I nearly missed how nice I am too

Chorus: Because here is a secret
           It's as strange as it can be
           All the good things I think about you
           Are all the good things about me

Listening to you and thinking you're intelligent
 Listening to you and thinking you're smart
 Listening to you and thinking how clever you are
 I nearly missed how clever I am too
 Listening to you and liking the things you say
 Listening to you and liking you too
 Listening to you and liking the things you say
 I nearly missed that I like me too

Just hanging out you're such a good friend to me
 Just hanging out you're really the best
 Just hanging out you're such a good friend
 But I shouldn't forget that I'm a good friend too
 Just hanging out you're so nice to be with
 Just hanging out can make me feel glad
 Just hanging out you're so nice to be with
 So that must mean I'm nice to be with too

Thinking of you and knowing you're reliable
 Knowing that I can depend upon you
 Thinking of you and knowing you're reliable
 I nearly forgot I'm reliable too
 Thinking of you and all the good things you are Thinking of all the good things you do
 Thinking of you and all the good things you are
 I nearly missed all the good things I do

Looking at you and thinking you're beautiful
 Looking at you and thinking you're fine
 Looking at you and thinking you're beautiful
 I nearly missed how beautiful I am

All the Good Things about Me (Cont)

Final Chorus: Because here is a secret
It's as strange as it can be
All the good things I think about you
Are all the good things about me
Yes, here is a secret
It's as strange as it can be
All the good things I think about you
Are all the good things about me
All the good things I think about you
Are all the good things about ... there shouldn't be any doubt ...
Are all the good things about me. About me
