

It Just Takes A Little Persistence

I can be anything I want, do anything I want

I can go the distance

I can be a winner; I can be a grinner

It just takes a little persistence

I can solve any problem; find a solution

I'm a run hitter, never a quitter

Winning or losing's a matter of choosing

The race isn't always won by the fastest one

I know I can do it; I can stick to it

I'm still doing fine, heading for the finish line

It's always too soon to quit, I won't hear of it

I'm in there trying, there's no denying

I've got the will to see it through; I've got the will to do

Flex my mental muscles, ready for the tussle

If I just hang in then I can win

Never going to give it up, only going to live it up

Repeat 1st verse

Words & Music © Copyright Anne Infante