

Better and Better

Words & Music © Copyright Anne Infante

If I wake up sad one day
I look in the mirror and say

Refrain:
'Things are getting better, better and better
Every single day.'

When my friends have gone away
I look in the mirror and say

And when school's been hard all day
I look in the mirror and say

When the weather is cold and grey
I look in the mirror and say

When I think I'm not okay
I look in the mirror and say

When my parents say, 'No way!'
I look in the mirror and say

When I'm sick in bed all day
I look in the mirror and say

When the blues won't go away
I look in the mirror and say

And when no one wants to play
I look in the mirror and say

When I need a lift today
I'll look in the mirror and say
